PRESERVING TRADITIONAL MUSIC IN EASTERN NC

Annual dues
are $24.00,
and our Membership &
Sponsorship form is on the back.

Hey Folks,

Thanks to your support, 2023 has been a successful year for BCTMA. We have brought you some of the best performers in Eastern North Carolina and outstanding bi-weekly jams!

We are looking forward to an exciting 2024 and invite you to join us by renewing your membership or sponsorship. Our membership dues are $24 per year, and our sponsorship opportunities include: Showcase – $1000 / Jamboree – $500 / Hoedown – $250 / Songster - $100. The Membership/Sponsorship form is included, and is also on our web site at www.bctma.org.

We have a super fall full of music planned for your enjoyment.

- October 19- Our Third Thursday Showcase will feature Laura Bradley and Pencanyon Productions. Laura is a young Greenville musician who loves to sing the blues in her strong clear voice. She also plays county, folk, and original songs. The Pencanyon Productions is a three-piece band from Beaufort County who share a love of playing an eclectic mix of standards, county, pop and blues. The band is composed of Dave Harragin and Reggie Workman on guitar and vocals, and Steve Orofino on bass. Their laidback style of singing and picking is a pleasure to hear.
- November 16- Cathead Biscuit returns with their unique blend of vintage Rock and Roll. This “All Star Ensemble” of local talented musicians is composed of Jeff Shirley and JB Mayes (on electric guitar), Robert McGaughy (percussion), Pam Cox (lead vocals), and Jay Costello (bass). Look for lots of Chicago-style and Allman-style blues.
- December 7- BCTMA’s Christmas Party and Annual Meeting. This year’s entertainment features a special open mic Christmas songfest.

Thank you all for your faithful support through the years. Your membership and/or sponsorship have sustained us and helped us prosper and bring exciting live music to our area for 15 years. We look forward to a bright future filled with more fun times for BCTMA as we continue to enjoy traditional music!!!

Thanks for your support!

Best Regards,

Linda & the BCTMA Board of Directors
