Don Skinner Guitarfest Lineup

This year the BCTMA is using the Guitarfest event to raise additional funding support for people still suffering from the damages of hurricane Florence with specific focus on the New Bern area.

In support and admiration for the people of New Bern, the BCTMA is featuring a line-up of bands composed of New Bern residents.

The Neuse River Ramblers

4:00 PM 4:50 PM Set #1 The Neuse River Ramblers add a touch of bluegrass flavor to traditional and contemporary tunes playing guitar, banjo, mandolin, fiddle and electric bass. The Neuse River Ramblers formed during the past year because the members were drawn together in the quest to play music just for the fun of it on a regular basis.

Hot Buttered Grits

5:10 PM 6:00 PM Set #2 Hot Buttered Grits is an improvisational acoustic / electric band from the New Bern area. Each member of Hot Buttered Grits brings an eclectic array of influences to the group for an unique blend of music that defies classification.

Peace Soldier

6:20 PM 7:10 PM Set #3 Peace Soldier is six rockin' guys who love playing mostly rock and blues music from the 60's, 70's and 80's. The band's goal is to give back to the community with a special interest in helping those less fortunate.

Strung Together Band

7:40 PM 8:30 PM Set #4 Strung Together is a family band, born on George and Dare Olivers' front porch in downtown New Bern, NC. They play songs they love on guitar, banjo, bass, percussion, and fiddle with soaring harmonies and a string band sound. The band enjoys making music and memories together as a family with a repertoire of their own unique blend of folk, Americana, old-time and bluegrass.

Admission is free and donations are appreciated.
Come and go as you wish or stay for the whole show.

Every year Guitarfest showcases some of the most popular guitar acts and vocalists in Eastern NC. It is held each year in the memory of Don Skinner, a fine musician who was a long-time member of BCTMA.
